

$115,350

raised for United Way of Central Georgia through employee contributions and corporate donation

6,709

students reached
through our in-class partnerships with local colleges and high schools to provide financial literacy to students

17

schools
partnered with us to teach
financial literacy in their classrooms

440

financial education classes were taught by Robins Financial employees to students in our communities

$55k

awarded in scholarships to our young members to assist in furthering education

$721k